The Children's Community Head Start Currently Enrolling Children, Birth – Age 5.

(Ronkonkoma...) The Children's Community Head Start, a federally funded comprehensive early childhood educational program for income eligible families, is currently enrolling children for the 2012 – 2013 school year.

This is a great opportunity for families with infants, toddlers and preschoolers! The Children's Community Head Start serves families with children from birth to 5 years. Families may be eligible for this free education program if they are low income and live in The Children's Community Head Start's service area in Islip or Brookhaven townships.

Families are encouraged to call today to find out more about applying! Port Jefferson Head Start: 631-476-9698/ Ronkonkoma Head Start: 631-585-3131.

The Children's Community Head Start (CCHS), with centers in Port Jefferson and Ronkonkoma, NY, provides services for families residing in 13 school districts in central Suffolk County. (School Districts include Comsewogue, Middle Country, Miller Place, Mt. Sinai, Port Jefferson, Rocky Point, Sachem, Sayville, Shoreham-Wading River, Three Village and parts of Connetquot, Longwood and Smithtown.) Families are eligible based on household incomes that are below the federal poverty line. Homeless and foster children and children with disabilities are also eligible. In addition to a high-quality and structured classroom experience, children benefit from health and nutrition services, family involvement, parent training and strong relationships with local school districts thus aiding their transition to Kindergarten.
